

AI TARGET – Artificial Intelligence Model

AI TARGET is an artificial intelligence model developed in the Military Technical Institute with the aim to be used in operations of the field surveillance, detection, identification and destruction of enemy targets. This model can be integrated into unmanned aerial vehicles used for the field surveillance. The model can be applied in an independent operation mode of the unmanned aerial vehicles destroying the identified targets without a pilot's command.

TECHNICAL CHARACTERISTICS:

AI TARGET:

Application:

Integration spot:

Purpose:

target identification model integration into various platforms

unmanned aerial vehicles

target detection and identification